

Nothing But Sky Classroom Discussion Questions

- 1) This book is set in 1922. What things did you notice were different from the current time we live in? Do you think it was easier or harder to live back then? Is there anything we still use today that was prominent back then?
- 2) A big theme in this book is to never give up on your dreams. How is Grace challenged in this book? What specific elements keep her from achieving her goals?
- 3) Through most of the book, Grace seems unconcerned for her safety when she wingwalks. But there are several moments where she reminds herself about the harrowing elements of the job. What are some of the things she comments on about the plane and the nature of wingwalking?
- 4) Family means a lot to Grace. In what ways does she try and keep her family together? In what ways does she seem to tear them apart?
- 5) Henry comes across as a strong character, but there are moments when he acts scared. Why do you think he acts this way? What are the ways other characters in the book, Grace, Nathan, Daniel. And Uncle Warren try to help him?
